Simone Bell, the recipient of The Kelley D. Alexander Award is currently a student at Agnes Scott College in Decatur, Georgia where she is an English major. Bell who is a writer and poet believes that as a black, lesbian, womyn, it is her responsibility to allow her light to shine in the middle of darkness as a beacon for those who are lost.

Maisha Peterson, the recipient of The Kathleen E. Morris Award attends Georgia State University in Atlanta where she is working toward a Bachelor of Social Work, with an ultimate goal of obtaining a Master of Social Work. Peterson believes that her degree in social work and her certification in massage therapy are powerful tools, which will help her to aid womyn survivors in learning that their bodies are their own, and that they are unique and wonderful beings.

Spencer Hope Dennis, the recipient of The Catherine E. McKinley Award is currently finishing her doctoral degree from North Carolina State University. Her discipline is sociology and her primary specialties are race, gender, sexuality, and inequality studies. She holds a master's degree in Criminal Justice from Kent State University. Dennis currently lives in Decatur, Georgia with her 14-year-old daughter.

Your on-going support of ZAMI signals your willingness to do "the hard work and scrutiny of now" so necessary for us to transform our futures.

On behalf of our board and 2001 Audre Lorde Scholars, we want to thank you for your past contributions and hope that you will consider giving the gift of education this holiday season. We know that you gave generously last year; please consider increasing your contribution.

In community spirit,

Mary Anne Adams,

Executive Director

The Audre Lorde Scholarship Fund is named in honor of Audre Lorde, former State Poet of New York who defined herself as a black lesbian, warrior poet. Lorde is internationally regarded as a significant contributor to the struggle for women's liberation and lesbian and gay rights. Lorde's voice was stilled in 1992, when she died of cancer at the age of 58.

ZAMI is a sponsored project of the Fund for Southern Communities (FSC). Tax-deductible contributions should be made payable to FSC and designated for the Audre Lorde Scholarship Fund. We have enclosed an envelope for giving.

Please mail your checks to:

ZAMI, Inc.
P.O. Box 2502
Decatur, GA 30031
404 370-0920 ZAMI@zami.org www.zami.org

ZAMI: A Carriacou word for women who work together as friends and lovers...

ZAMI, INC.
THE AUDRE LORDE SCHOLARSHIP FUND

December 16, 2001

"Acknowledged, our dreams can shape the realities of our future, if we arm them with the hard work and scrutiny of now." Audre Lorde

Dear Friend:

On September 29, 2001, The Audre Lorde Scholarship Fund awarded seven $1000 scholarships to a group of exemplary women. Since 1997, we have celebrated the achievements of these remarkable scholars by awarding twenty-two $1000 scholarships. As you know, the Fund honors and supports outstanding African-American (out) lesbians who attend accredited post secondary institutions in the states of Georgia, Florida, Mississippi, Louisiana, South Carolina, North Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama, Arkansas, Texas, Virginia and Kentucky. It is the only scholarship fund for African- American lesbians in the country and is surviving and staying strong because of your sustenance and generosity.

Please meet our 2001 Scholars:

Nina "Ricci" Wilson, the recipient of The Joan P. Garner Award lives in Durham, North Carolina and attends Durham Technical Community College where she's pursuing an associate's degree in Computer Programming. Wilson who has three grandchildren decided in 1983 that she wanted a different life for them and obtained her GED. She has gone from earning minimum wage to working as an Advanced Health Unit Coordinator on the Oncology Unit at Duke University.

Maya Rodgers, the recipient of The Mary Anne Adams Award is completing her college degree after twenty-two years of putting her education on hold and raising her children. Rodgers degree in Organizational Leadership from Mercer University in Atlanta would represent a first for her family and a milestone for her personally. She lives in Covington, Georgia where she is raising her seven-year-old grandson.

Kawanna Glenn, the recipient of The Sheryl Burke Award is one of the few "out" lesbians attending Appalachian State in Boone, North Carolina. Glenn is the Resident Assistant in a residence hall occupied by an all white sorority. Albeit, at times, finding the lack of diversity unsettling, she has used this opportunity to conduct programming that allows discussion on homosexuality in a constructive manner.

Sherri Jackson, the recipient of The Ruth C. Ellis Award is completing her B.S. degree in Business Administration from Columbia Southern University in Orange Beach, Alabama via distance learning. She currently makes her living in the Medical Profession as a Licensed Respiratory Practitioner, while volunteering countless hours on behalf of L/G/B/T issues.

Simone Bell, the recipient of The Kelley D. Alexander Award is currently a student at Agnes Scott College in Decatur, Georgia where she is an English major. Bell who is a writer and poet believes that as a black, lesbian, womyn, it is her responsibility to allow her light to shine in the middle of darkness as a beacon for those who are lost.

Maisha Peterson, the recipient of The Kathleen E. Morris Award attends Georgia State University in Atlanta where she is working toward a Bachelor of Social Work, with an ultimate goal of obtaining a Master of Social Work. Peterson believes that her degree in social work and her certification in massage therapy are powerful tools, which will help her to aid womyn survivors in learning that their bodies are their own, and that they are unique and wonderful beings.

Spencer Hope Dennis, the recipient of The Catherine E. McKinley Award is currently finishing her doctoral degree from North Carolina State University. Her discipline is sociology and her primary specialties are race, gender, sexuality, and inequality studies. She holds a master's degree in Criminal Justice from Kent State University. Dennis currently lives in Decatur, Georgia with her 14-year-old daughter.

Your on-going support of ZAMI signals your willingness to do "the hard work and scrutiny of now" so necessary for us to transform our futures.

On behalf of our board and 2001 Audre Lorde Scholars, we want to thank you for your past contributions and hope that you will consider giving the gift of education this holiday season. We know that you gave generously last year; please consider increasing your contribution.

In community spirit,

Mary Anne Adams,

Executive Director

The Audre Lorde Scholarship Fund is named in honor of Audre Lorde, former State Poet of New York who defined herself as a black lesbian, warrior poet. Lorde is internationally regarded as a significant contributor to the struggle for women's liberation and lesbian and gay rights. Lorde's voice was stilled in 1992, when she died of cancer at the age of 58.

ZAMI is a sponsored project of the Fund for Southern Communities (FSC). Tax-deductible contributions should be made payable to FSC and designated for the Audre Lorde Scholarship Fund. We have enclosed an envelope for giving.

Please mail your checks to:

ZAMI, Inc.
P.O. Box 2502
Decatur, GA 30031
404 370-0920 ZAMI@zami.org www.zami.org

ZAMI: A Carriacou word for women who work together as friends and lovers...

ZAMI, INC.
THE AUDRE LORDE SCHOLARSHIP FUND

December 16, 2001

"Acknowledged, our dreams can shape the realities of our future, if we arm them with the hard work and scrutiny of now." Audre Lorde

Dear Friend:

On September 29, 2001, The Audre Lorde Scholarship Fund awarded seven $1000 scholarships to a group of exemplary women. Since 1997, we have celebrated the achievements of these remarkable scholars by awarding twenty-two $1000 scholarships. As you know, the Fund honors and supports outstanding African-American (out) lesbians who attend accredited post secondary institutions in the states of Georgia, Florida, Mississippi, Louisiana, South Carolina, North Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama, Arkansas, Texas, Virginia and Kentucky. It is the only scholarship fund for African- American lesbians in the country and is surviving and staying strong because of your sustenance and generosity.

Please meet our 2001 Scholars:

Nina "Ricci" Wilson, the recipient of The Joan P. Garner Award lives in Durham, North Carolina and attends Durham Technical Community College where she's pursuing an associate's degree in Computer Programming. Wilson who has three grandchildren decided in 1983 that she wanted a different life for them and obtained her GED. She has gone from earning minimum wage to working as an Advanced Health Unit Coordinator on the Oncology Unit at Duke University.

Maya Rodgers, the recipient of The Mary Anne Adams Award is completing her college degree after twenty-two years of putting her education on hold and raising her children. Rodgers degree in Organizational Leadership from Mercer University in Atlanta would represent a first for her family and a milestone for her personally. She lives in Covington, Georgia where she is raising her seven-year-old grandson.

Kawanna Glenn, the recipient of The Sheryl Burke Award is one of the few "out" lesbians attending Appalachian State in Boone, North Carolina. Glenn is the Resident Assistant in a residence hall occupied by an all white sorority. Albeit, at times, finding the lack of diversity unsettling, she has used this opportunity to conduct programming that allows discussion on homosexuality in a constructive manner.

Sherri Jackson, the recipient of The Ruth C. Ellis Award is completing her B.S. degree in Business Administration from Columbia Southern University in Orange Beach, Alabama via distance learning. She currently makes her living in the Medical Profession as a Licensed Respiratory Practitioner, while volunteering countless hours on behalf of L/G/B/T issues.